Mr. THOMAS,

If the following Piece be thought worthy the attention of the public, please to give it a place in your useful paper.

The IRISH DRAPER'S LETTERS to VESPUSIA, by DEAN SWIFT's who is, now reaping in the Elysian-Fields, the reward of his patriotism while living upon earth.

Whereas you have taken upon you to be a Volunteer upon Government, and yet are discovered to be the common Enemy of the Country you pretend to serve, and do act as Spies upon our Counsels, and give Intelligence to the Rebels of the Measures resolved upon for their Destruction; You are hereby required forthwith to surrender yourselves to Gaol, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize, to answer your Contempt and Treachery, and every other Offence of Misprision without Expectation speedily inconfident with Safety.

Dated at Head-Quarters, Cambridge, Sept. 2, 1774.

By Order of Gen. GAGE,

H. GARDNER, Secretary.

*Whereas the Inhabitants of Boston, and the Neighbouring Towns, have, in a most audacious and daring Manner, attempted to carry off the Effects of Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs, and have also, in a most outrageous Manner, insulted the Officers of the Revenue, and obstructed the Execution of Writs issued out of his Majesty's Courts of Justice, and have also, in a most unwarrantable Manner, seized the Effects of Persons who have taken Refuge on board his Majesty's Ships of War

Sixthly, Resolved, that if any person or persons shall export tobacco, or any other commodity, to Great-Britain, after the 10th day of August, 1775, contrary to this association, we will break off all trade and dealings with such person or persons as interest in the community, and as an approver of the same long continued; and give it as our opinion, that the public should be informed of his conduct, as in the 8th Article is declared.

Seventhly, Being fully persuaded that the united wisdom of the general congress may improve on these or our resolves to produce the most effectual means for the preservation of American rights, as aforesaid, but do hereby resolve that we will conform to and strictly observe all such alterations or additions, as shall be adopted by the said congress, when they shall be made known to us.

For the MASSACHUSETTS SPY.

Mr. THOMAS,

THE freemen who were instructed to grieve in Grand Forest at the Superior Court for said County, made their appearance to the Court-House yesterday; and before a numerous assembly, Peter Oliver, Edmund Trowbridge, Peter Harthshorn, William Cushing and William Brown Sheriffs, acting as the honest jury they all to the number of twenty two declined acting as Jurors for reasons which they had previously drawn up in writing and signed, and appeared to be read thro' by their Counsellor, but the above bold Judges refusing to hear the same openly read, desired to have the reasoning of it to themselves, which being complied with the Jurymen withdrew from the Court House to the Goal-House, where they soon unanimously voted that in order to satisfy their refusal to the world, their aforementioned reasons should be printed in the public papers—and that you send a copy for that purpose is the desire of your humble servant,

A JURYMAN.

* BOSTON, August 30th, 1774.

A CONVENTION of DELEGATES.

WE who are returned by the several towns in this county, to serve as Grand Jurors at the Superior Court for this present term, being advised by a solemn assembly of peace and good order, and a humble address to our Sovereign Lord King and parliament; wille we for the open and avowed design of establishing the most compleat system of despotism in this province, and have therefore declined and refused to be sworn to the most abject state of Slavery; and bondage; we feel ourselves mercifully constrained to declare being impartially sensible of the many miseries we shall be subject to, as Court if instituted, which are as follows.

1st. Because Peter Oliver, Esq; who sits as Chief Judge of this Court, by his own choice will high crimes and misdemeanors. By the late Act of Parliament, for altering the grand council of this province; of which crimes he has never been legally acquitted, but has been declared by that Act, a fit person to be of the Council of the province, and has taken his seat accordingly to the validity of the same, to which we dare not confide.

2d. Thirdly, Because three of the Judges, being the major part of the Court, namely the said Peter Oliver, Esq; Peter Hotchinson, Esq; and William Brown, Esq; by taking the oath of Councellor, under another date of the aforesaid Act (as we are informed) forum to cast into execution, all the late grievous acts of the British parliament among the last of which is one, made obedience to the Generals absolutely necessary in this province, but as we fear, really for the ignominy of such persons, as shall under pretext of executing such acts, murder any of the inhabitants thereof, which also appears to us to be in direct violation of the rights of justice and common humanity, and are justly complained of throughout America, as highly injurious and oppressive to the good people of this province, and destructive of their natural rights as well as constitutional rights.

3d. Fourthly. Because we believe in our consciences that the acting in concert with a Court so constituted and under such circumstances would be to be betraying the just and dearest rights of our native land, which were not the gift of Kings, but were purchased freely with the toil, the blood and treasure of our ancestors, and therefore we think we should do look upon ourselves under the most sacred and inviolable obligations to maintain, and to transmit whole and intire to our posterity.

4th. Therefore we the subscribers unanimously decline acting as Grand Jurors at this Court.

THURSDAY, Sept. 1, BOSTON.

Last night by the direction of the Governor Court was to be holden at Inn, the Judges Peter Oliver, Esq; and the other Justices of said County together with a number of gentlemen of the Law, to whom His Excellency had issued Writs of Dedimus to qualify them as Justices of the Court—but the Governor not appearing, the Justices adjourned the said proclamation until 8 o'clock this morning, when the Governor appointed Mr. Ebenezer Hancock, Foreman, this he refusing to be sworn, and the gentlemen being put to them all, severally refused, they would not serve, they were all refused; and being asked whether they had any reasons after for their thus refusing; they answered they had, and that it was very necessary they should be given; they required it to be done, but the Jurors refused giving the Court any of their reasons, they were then permitted to read it in Court, but after reading the Court would permit it to return it to the Jurors.

The Petit Jurors were then called for, and a 30 of them were had, & ordered to the Court they expected Mr. Bowdoin Solicitor General to prosecute His Majesty's Pleas in Right of the Crown. — Mr. Rowland had the next principal cause, which he declined taking and being asked for what reason, refused to give it, but soon after said he was drawn up by their unanimous consent, and desired to be excused from it. The Court refused to hear the paper read, and threats were reported in each Jury room to fine, and declare why the Jurors refused. These reasons the Jurors were severally referred to the paper, till it came to turn of Mr. Thomas Cloyd, who stood known to read the paper then in hand; it was read by the Clerk, and the Jurors were desired to give their reasons without reading the paper; it was read a second, and said that one of his reasons was that Peter Oliver, Esq; Chief Justice of said Court, stood impeached by the late Hon. House of Representatives of this province, for their high crimes and misdemeanors, being stiled by the Speaker of said House of Representatives, before the Governor, as an inducement to say that it was refused — The Court then called upon another of the Petit Jurors to be sworn, but he refused, and referred to the paper for his reasons, as others did. The Chief Justice then ordered the Court to sit to receive the papers, which should be published in the Spy's paper, which was done by the next and transient. The Jurors then proposed the same condition to the Grand-Jurors, which was refused with, and their contents disregarded, as I am informed in this day's paper, by the next Grand Jury.

The reasons of the Petit Jurors were as follows:

To the Honorable the Justices of the Superior Court of Judicature, Court of Assize, &c. &c. &c.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR HONOURS,

WE the subscribers, Jurors for this county to serve at Petit Jurors this terme, beg leave to acquaint your Honours, that as the hon. Peter Oliver, Esq; stands impeached by the late House of Representatives of this province for high crimes and misdemeanors, and in the name of the people of this province of high crimes and misdemeanors; which impeachment, with the articles, as they are public, would be needless for us to repeate.

We would also beg leave to acquaint your Honours, that as by a late act of the British parliament, the constitution of the judges of the inferior Courts was altered in the first of July last, made to depend upon fold est, which is a supposition of these their dependence entirely upon the crown, and which is, tending to great Infringement of the charter, rights of this province.

Taking the above premises into our most serious consideration, for fear leave to acquaint your Honours, that we cannot be sworn consistently with the trust reposed in us by our own, to our country, to ourselves, and to posterity, as against the united voice of this people,——Therefore, for your Honours information we beg leave to assign our reasons as Petit Jurors for this Court.

Elijah Jenkins,

After the Court had read the papers, the Clerk of the Court, by order of the Chief Justice, asked them severally if they would be sworn, and every one refused. The Court then said they would confider of their reasons, and the Jurors withdrew. The Court sat in the afternoon, and the next day, when they met according to the Adjournment, Peter Oliver, Esq; acted as the only respectable Judge of three appointed, with as much assurance as if no such thing had happened.

The Court of Portugal and Spain, it is said, have absolutely prohibited all British manufactory to enter any of their dominions, and entirely prohibited, have very lately taken off that duties from Wines, Cotton, Coffee, &c. which have hitherto imported into their respective dominions. From this British Settlements in America, and allowing all the vessels from that quarter free entrance as they did at any time before, it may naturally be inferred from hence that the American Standship is very seriously injured by the distural arrest of the routine country.

A Town-Meeting was held by a Warrant at Faneuil Hall, Tuesday last, and after liberty was waited for the laying out a Brick-Yard for the employment of the poor, the meeting was adjourned to Friday Evening, at nine o'clock, to receive the report of a committee relative to filling up part of the town-dock.

Town meetings, and county meetings, are now held and now calling in all parts of the province, a provincial congress is also to be soon appointed.

On Monday last the freeholders and other inhabitants of Roxbury, held a meeting at the house of Mr. Jones, and chose delegates for a county meeting. At this meeting, we are informed Henry Wardlow, Esqr made it known, that he should resign his office as councillor.

The spirit of the people is now known to be so great since the first excitement of the colonies, as is at this time. People in the country for the most part, are prepared and determined to be FREE.

The Delegates from this province, South-Carolina, Rhode-Island and New-Hampshire, and several other colonies, had an end of Thursday in their way to Philadelphia, where the high abilities came assembly.

Enrolled of a letter from Lancaster, dated, August 27th.

"Yesterday Mr. Paine, of Worcester, was visited by another good company, and we drove off a fifth. Another visit the day before, from one town to another, though the warning was so short, the above number collected and most of them entered into a solemn league & covenant, and they all marched into the town in order and drew up on the common, as I believe admirably well; they chose a committee of 3 or 5 men from each company to wait upon Mr. Paine and demand a resignation of his office as councillor; that committee being large they chose from among themselves a sub-committee, who were to list heads, where he agreed on a time for delivering up his commission of appointment, mentioning his obligation to the county for forcing that from him, his sorrow for taking the oath, and promise that he never would act in the execution of any part of the charter; after which he came with the committee to this common, where the people were drawn up in two bodies, making a lane between them, through which the committee and he passed and read the resignation, and he signed it, and made acknowledgments; they then returned in a peaceable manner to their own homes, except about six hundred who repaired to Rutland to meet the people from Hardwick and Murray; when they arrived there, they were joined by about one thousand more from towns above, proceeding as they did at Worcester in chusing a committee, who went to the house and demanded a resignation of Col. Murray; he has since informed them he was not at home, but fee off for Boston the preceeding evening; the committee made report to the assembly, who voted that the resignation was insufficient upon Lanching the heads, which was thoroughly done, as also the barns, out houses and stables, after which the committee went to the house of Mr. Murray, & informed him that unless he resigned his office by the next morning at 10 o'clock, and published such resignation in the Boston Newspapers, he would be waked upon legs for his pains home.*

The people in the county of Worcester, have obliged several officers holding commissions of several kinds thus our Chester sheriffs, and will to the last extremity oppose their unconstitutional office, and have many more being exercised in the county.——I heard there was a number marching to Hardwick, to visit the Brigadier the same day they went to Worcester to Rutland; but hearing he was not at home they disperfed."

We hear from Bridgewater, that when the new, unconstitutional councillor, Josiah Edson, Esq; (who is also a Deacon) found no person to take the oath of office, in the king-houfe there, yesterday fe'nnight, the congregation would not stop—It was told a great number of people intended to wait on him the Wednesday following.

Extract of a letter from Boston, dated August 25.

We hear that Brigadier Ruggles, one of the new made Councellors, being at Col. Toby's at Dutchmoth, the Sheepsheerfield Indians one day with sticks and ordered him to depart forthwith; upon which the Colonel proposed them he would go the next morning by him as fast as high; but they insisted he should go that night, & he set off his mules and tail end off, and his body painted all over! Since which he took refuge at Col. Gilbert's at Freetown.

"This morning about 200 men mount the Watertown Bridge, & two hours after about 500 more appointed a committee to wait the town of Dighton, Swanzey, Rayhham, Norton, Mansfield, Attleborough, and Easton to meet them at Taunton, & that a bye-post man was to ride all night, & that a bye-post man was to ride all night, & that he should be with all the speed possible able to relate his private Ruggles to depart this county immediately—which he complied with, and left Boston about 10 o'clock, and arrived at Milton about 12 o'clock at night, and there he stopped, and to have awoke in a passion. He'll mine him! he'll bring a jury here then at Boston, even if no trials should be had."

WITH GREAT SECRECY the morning half after four, about 260 troops embarked on board 13 boats at the long wharf, and proceeded up Mystic river to Temple's farm, where they landed and marched to Cambridge. Charles bridge, where they have taken 250 barrels of powder the whole done there, which is to be brought to Boston, and the remainder to Phipps's farm. A GRAND MARAUDE this!——By this time they have at least 500 powder belonging to the town of Charlestown.

It is faid that the office of Lieutenant Governor of the Province was offered to Thomas Cushing, Esq; and Peter Oliver, Esq; and that the acceptance of his not receiving the commission was owing to a mistake in the institution of the Gallows and not to principle.

On Saturday arrived in town from his seat at Danvers, his Excellency the Governor.

We learn from Salem, that the Hon. Andrew Oliver, Esq; left Work yesterday morning for Excellency the Governor, with a resignation of his seat at the council board."

We hear from Topsham, that one Mr. Robert Mashbullan, formerly of Boston, is appointed a Justice of the Peace for that town.

A corn pandent says, the province will never rest while one man who has accepted any office under the sanction of the late acts of parliament, is possessed of any one point of power or profit in the province, and until every one of them by great patriotick obstinacy, firmness, or brave Antimacy—and until all your addresses to Hutchinson have by bomb falling them asleep, and your Representatives to the country, and the city of Boston let parties—we elfe are tempted off from the continent.

A PROPOSAL for each different parts of the country.—It is proposed that an estimate should be formed by 3rd different people, of the value of all the real estates in Boston, that half the estates be it should be sunk in their value by the Port Bill, contributed to the relief of the poor sufferers, to be raised by the rage of our common enemies, the country might be able to form a judgment of the retribution that should be made to the sufferers. This does honour to the public virtue of our country.

YOUR Colonel H——k by neglect,
Has been dunnen in respect;
As in my Regiment no more I'll wield,
'Twas proper he should be dismiss'd
I never was and never will,
By mortal man be treated ill;
I never was a tool to any,
Be treated ill by mortal man?
O hand I but have known before,
That tongue a false one to be more,
It should have been my greatest pleasure,
To have prevented this bold exposure;
To most worthy Generals degrees,
My Standard flung into my face,
Disband you slaves—fo curfed base,
O had I, had I, tutor'd you out.

NEW-YORK, August 25.

We here that last Monday mornings as two of the Gentlemen appointed by the committee to wait on the suffering brethren in Boston set out upon that disinterested, the first Gentleman they called was Mr. Dunn, who generously freelented them with ten pounds in cash, and the best pig in the county & afterwards generously added twenty eight pounds; observing, as the same time, that the generosity of the Virginians and Carolinians, &c. was great and honorable with regard to the Boston Port Bill, but that those sufferers for the common good ought to back at well as ear.

NEWPORT, August 22. Letters from Philadelphia's fay, that city only, in the space of 3 days, RAISED SEVEN THOUSAND POUNDS, that currency, for the support of Boston; and that every other town in Pennsylvania government are doing as proportionably.

LONDON,

June 23. The Park, Whitehall, and other parts of parliament streets, were thronged with multitudes of people to see the Royal procession to the House of Lords.

As the King passed they gave him a most cordial welcome. As the King passed they gave him a most cordial welcome. As the King passed they gave him a most cordial welcome.

From the NEW-YORK JOURNAL.

The glorious SEVENTY FOUR.

A NEW SONG.

Tune of Hearts of Oak.

COME, comey my brave boys, from my song you shall hear,
That will crown every-foe, a sad glorious year!
We'll commence Rare and Blue, and Mortar, though they strive,
Britons fall like themselves, spurn the chains of a slave.

CHORUS.

Hearts of oak were our sires,
Hearts of oak are these sons,
Like them we are ready, in firm and so steady,
To fight for our freedom with swords and with guns.

Foolish slave to conjecture by casting of mains,
That the wavering mind of freemen would change in our veins;
Let us fearless, yet be freer, from the line to the point,
Britain's sons shall retain all their freedom of soul.

3.

Hearts of oak were our sires, &c.

4.

See—our rights to invade, Britain's ministry fires,
Sending Tyrants and Changes, and vassalry suspire,
That our Fathers' brave blood, in their veins we were grown,
And our hearts seem as fervent and hale as their sons.

5.

Hearts of oak were our sires, &c.

6.

Their ire still is driven away from our shores,
Or presented to Neptune, or rots in our floors—
But to save, to divide? all we vouch to their views,
Or brave liberty, their vengeance—every freedy of steel.

7.

Hearts of oak were our sires, &c.

8.

Now, brethr'n, we notice! we agree to a map,
See our fleets flow to Boston, from near and from wyn;
Mark the British, how it flies, freedom's voice, how it cries!
Unfold it!

From each country, each clime, hark, the echo rebounds!
Hearts of oak were our sires, &c.

10.

Across the Atlantic—to find out the year,
If her rock's Re tam's genius, who dow'd on his shore
Who has wiped my song my tears kept of the main!
Whose praise so vigorous if never was sung!

11.

Hearts of oak were our sires, &c.

12.

With that whom I father'd and cherish'd by force,
Fair freedom shall flourish, and Britain be free!
No tyrant shall rule them,—th Heaven's decree,
They shall never be slaves, while they dare to be free,

13.

Hearts of oak were our sires, &c.

14.

Think then we are ready, as firm and as steddy,
To fight for our freedom with swords and with guns.
